NY AG Securities Fraud Pro Heads To Quinn Emanuel

By Matthew Guarnaccia

Law360, New York (February 2, 2016, 6:46 PM ET) -- An attorney for the New York attorney general's office who oversaw the recent multimillion-dollar dark pool settlements with Barclays and Credit Suisse, as well as multiple consumer protection settlements, will join Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP as a litigation partner, the firm said Monday.

Chad Johnson comes to Quinn Emanuel's New York office after working for three years as the head of the state's Investor Protection Bureau on securities fraud and other financial matters, and will take on roles at the firm representing both plaintiffs and...
